The Open Archives Forum provides a Europe-based focus for dissemination of information about European activity related to open archives and, in particular, to the Open Archives Initiative. The aim of the Forum is to facilitate clustering of IST projects, national initiatives and other parties interested in the open archives approach. In order to do so, the Forum brings interested parties together to build a community of interest, enable exchange of information and establish a web-based European information source for open archives. In addition, the Forum undertakes comparative reviews of technical and organisational issues.

Glossary

A

Archive -- "Archive" in the Open Archive Initiative sense is synonymous with a repository of scholarly papers (reflecting the origins of the OAI), and, more broadly, a repository of stored information. Outside the OAI, archivists have stricter definitions of what an archive is; these definitions include notions of long-term preservation, institutional policy, and document appraisal. See the OAI FAQ: "What do you mean by an "Archive?" See also "Open Archive" in this glossary.

D

Data Provider -- A Data Provider's web server supports the OAI Protocol as a means of exposing metadata about its content (see Service Provider).

DC / Dublin Core -- a standard metadata format for web documents (with 15 core fields).
